Downpours in North Arkansas Flood Towns

SPRINGDALE, Ark. (AP) — Springdale was hit by its worst flash flood in years today, sending water gushing through streets 5 feet deep in places.

Harrison, hard-hit by a 14-foot flash flood May 7, and Rogers also were caught in the path of deluges from thunderstorms which poured up to four inches of water into creeks and lowlands within a few hours.

At Springdale, many homes were flooded in the northeast part of its residential section. Business streets were flooded. Success street just south of Emma, the main thoroughfare, was under nearly three feet of water. Water ran over the floorboards of cars. No one was reported killed or injured.

Highways around Bentonville, just north of Rogers, were flooded and many were closed.

Radio Station KBRS here reported 2.36 inches of rain fell in its gauge but nearly twice that much poured into the downtown area. It reported it was the worst flood in years.

It was still raining at Springdale 1 p.m. today and the weather bureau warned Northwest Arkansas to brace itself for more thunderstorms.

Five families were evacuated from the northeastern part of Springdale.

All the streets, with the exception of Emma, were flooded but within a short time most of them were open except those close to town where the water was running over bridges.

Many Springdale residents stacked their furniture to get it off the floor of their homes.

Town Branch goes right through the center of the Springdale business district which was completely flooded in 1950 but not since.

Water continued to rise in Town Branch early this afternoon at four inches an hour. The water in the creek was four to 10 feet deep in the waterbed and one to two feet in the overflow area.

No business firm in Springdale had been flooded by early afternoon.

June 2 to Be a Big Day in Hope

At least 27 girls will vie for the title of Poultry Princess at Hope, Friday, June 2. Four will be selected to compete for the state title and represent Arkansas in the "Miss Universe" contest.

Some 24 contestants will compete for the title of Chicken Cookin' Queen, with $50 savings bonds awarded to the top four who will go on to the state finals.

June 2 will be a busy day in Hope with contestants arriving at 9 a.m. to register. There will be a parade downtown at 11 a.m. Luncheon for contestants will be at 12 noon. From 1 to 4 p.m. the new and modern hatcher at Carr Belt will be open to the public for the first time.

At 4 p.m. the chicken-que starts at Fair park and the princess contest and talent show will start at 8 p.m. Local poultry and feed dealers have tickets. Just $1.00 buys a chicken dinner and admits you to the princess contest.

FIRE TEAR GAS — Policeman H. D. Gilbert who with his partner answered a call from Methodist Hospital in Houston for help, fired a tear gas bullet into the room in which Charles E. White was holed up. Gilbert is shown with knife that White used to kill two persons and injured four others, after going berserk. White was shot four times before being captured.

Kennedy May Block the Rail Strike

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy is expected to issue an order today blocking a nationwide railroad strike threat raised for next Monday by the Railroad Yardmasters of America.

The expected order setting up an emergency board to examine issues in the labor dispute and frame settlement recommendations would block any strike for at least two months under terms of the Railway Labor Act.

A spokesman for the carriers said in Chicago there would be no walkout for at least two months. Washington officials said there wasn't the slightest threat of any imminent rail stoppage.

Chairman Francis A. O'Neill Jr. said the National Mediation Board has certified the dispute to the White House. This means that the board, after trying since late 1960 to mediate the case, has decided on the emergency board route with its 60-day strike-stopping provision as a last resort.

O'Neill said the dispute is a hangover from the 1959-1960 wage rule adjustments involving more than a score of unions. He indicated that the dispute centers more about vacation and holiday demands than about wages. A wage increase in 1960 and a similar increase in 1961 was the pattern accepted by other unions.

The main points at issue are yardmaster demands for seven paid holidays and improved vacations. Members of the union don't get premium pay now for holidays worked, nor regular pay for holidays not worked.

Milton G. Schoch, president of the nonoperating union representing some 5,000 workers who make up the trains, said the work stoppage could tie up the nation's major railroads. Schoch confirmed the strike call Thursday night but declined to disclose issues in the dispute.

A spokesman for the railroad, however, said the dispute involved wages and work rules and would go before an emergency

Department Store Sales Are Up

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis reports that department store sales in the Eighth Federal Reserve District rose nine per cent the week ended May 13 compared to the similar week last year.

Little Rock reported a decline of 20 per cent.

The Louisville area was up 32 per cent and Memphis 24 per cent. St. Louis rose five per cent and sales in seven smaller district cities climbed 10 per cent.

Sales for the four week period ending May 13, however, were four per cent below those of the like period a year ago.

Adult Scout Workers Hold Training Meet

Adult Scout volunteer workers, including leaders, assistant leaders, and all adults interested in scouting, met at the Little House at Fair Park this week.

Each person brought a nose-hag lunch to eat at noon, and coffee and cake were also served to those present. A variety of things were learned to help leaders have a better troop program to offer their Brownies and Scouts.

A film entitled "Getting Along Together in a Troop Meeting" was shown and discussed at length. Mary Anna Branson of Texarkana, Girl Scout District Advisor for the Conifer Council, had charge of the program.

Nashville leaders attending were Mrs. Martindale, Mrs. Floyd, Mrs. Lemley, and Mrs. Musgraves. Hope was represented by Mrs. Arch Wylie, Mrs. Fred McElroy, and Mrs. Steve Bader.

All agreed on the success of the meeting from the standpoints of enjoyment and information gleaned. The desire was expressed to hold future meetings of this type as often as possible.

Mathematician Honored by Reds

MOSCOW (AP)—Mstislav Keldysh, 50, a mathematician, was elected president of the Soviet Academy of Sciences today. Keldysh was awarded the Order of Lenin in February with special mention for his contributions to aircraft design. He succeeds Alexander N. Nesmeyanov, who has served as president of the leading Soviet scientific body since 1951.

Nesmeyanov asked to be relieved for health reasons, the Soviet Tass news agency said.

Nesmeyanov was well-known among Western scientists, having attended various international meetings.

Before his appointment as president of the academy, Nesmeyanov had built up a scientific reputation for his work in atomic research.

As head of the academy, he was generally credited with helping to develop the Sputniks.

Tass said Nesmeyanov recommended Keldysh as his successor, saying at the meeting: "It is my profound opinion that Keldysh is the best possible nomination for president."

Canada Prods Russia Into Agreement

By ARTHUR GAVSHON

GENEVA (AP)—Under prodding by Canada, the Soviet Union agreed today to help solve the urgent problem of supplying the control commission in Laos with equipment needed to preserve the peace.

The 14-nation conference here sent off a message to the commission asking what it needed in the way of planes, helicopters, trucks and communications equipment.

Foreign Secretary Howard C. Green of Canada brought up the question of supply, declaring the need was imperative. Conference sources said he thus put the issue squarely up to Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko.

Rather than assume a stalling attitude before the conference, Gromyko agreed to Green's proposal, these sources said.

U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk and other members of the American delegation were delighted at Green's triumph, they added.

The action represented the first fully defined achievement in four days of lengthy and complex conference negotiations in Laos.

Indian delegate V. K. Krishna Menon told newsmen he understood the United States, Britain and the Soviet Union were ready to help out the truce teams with planes, helicopters and other equipment.

India is chairman of the three-nation commission, Poland and Canada the other members.

Menon said Indian and Canadian pilots could fly the Western aircraft and Poles the Soviet machines.

East and West delegates approved the move to tighten the shaky truce in Laos. Both sides had charged Thursday that the rival factions in that country were violating the cease-fire.

British Foreign Secretary Lord Home and the Soviet Union's Andrei A. Gromyko, as cochairmen of the conference, discussed ways to strengthen the truce commission's hand.

They included proposals for reinforcing the commission with more money and manpower; swiftly providing a fleet of airplanes, helicopters, cars, trucks and communications equipment; calling for countrywide surveillance of the uneasy cease-fire.

The initiative for the conference's crash program to buttress the international commission came from Canadian Foreign Minister Howard C. Green, who urged for speed and said the commission could not properly check the truce without its own fully self-contained system of transportation, communications and maintenance.

Meanwhile, the Western Big Three shaped up a new plan designed to rid the troubled kingdom of the North Vietnamese who they claim turned the tide of battle in favor of the Pathet Lao rebels.

Dr. Shorey New Medical Center Head

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Dr. Winston K. Shorey of the University of Miami, Fla., today was named dean of the University of Arkansas Medical School.

Shorey, now associate dean of Miami's School of Medicine in Coral Gables, succeeds Dr. Douglas F. Lawrason who resigned in February to become executive medical director of a drug firm.

Dr. David W. Mullins, Arkansas president who announced Shorey's selection today, said the new dean will take over Aug. 1. He was selected from a list of six candidates nominated by an advisory committee named to select potential replacements for Lawrason.

Shorey has been on the University of Miami staff for six years. In addition to that post, he is on the staff of the Jackson Memorial Hospital in Miami, a member of the Dade County Hospital Advisory Board and a director of the Dade County Welfare Planning Society.

He is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and served as a member of the school's medical staff before moving to Miami in 1955. He became associate dean there two years later.

Mullins said that the post of provost of the University Medical Center, which Lawrason also held, has been eliminated. Those duties have been assumed by Storm Whaley, who was named last year as university vice president for health sciences.

JFK, Khrushchev Plan Meeting in Vienna in June

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy and Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev will meet in Vienna June 3 and 4 for a "general exchange of views" on major world issues, the White House announced today.

The announcement ruled out any effort to reach agreement on "the major international problems that involve the interest of many other countries."

"The meeting will, however, afford a timely and convenient opportunity for the first personal contact between them (Kennedy and Khrushchev) and a general exchange of views on the major issues which affect the relationship between the two countries," the announcement said.

Announcement of the meeting was made simultaneously in Washington, Moscow and London.

It disclosed officially what had been rumored for some time—that after a meeting with French President Charles de Gaulle in Paris May 31-June 2, the President will go directly to Vienna.

White House press secretary Pierre Salinger said Kennedy will make the trip on the morning of June 3. It is approximately a two-hour flight.

Diplomatic officials say privately Kennedy's primary interest in meeting Khrushchev is to try through direct personal diplomacy to save the Geneva negotiations on a nuclear weapons test ban.

The talks among the United States, Britain and the Soviet Union have been deadlocked for many weeks.

In addition, the President is said to feel that it would be useful for him at this time to make clear to Khrushchev that in spite of U. S. reverses in Cuba and Laos the United States is determined to stand by commitments to prevent free nations from being taken over by international communism.

Kennedy met Thursday with former Secretary of State Dean Acheson, who is advising him on NATO policies; Assistant Secretary of State Fay Kohler; Charles E. Bohlen, the State Department's top expert on Soviet affairs; and McGeorge Bundy, the President's special assistant for international security affairs.

The President has scheduled a National Security Council meeting for this afternoon.

Actor Jeff Chandler Is Critical

CULVER CITY, Calif. (AP)—Jeff Chandler, who hitchhiked to Hollywood 16 years ago to fulfill a boyhood dream of movie stardom, is in critical condition today after a 7½-hour emergency operation to stop abdominal bleeding.

The graying 42-year-old actor was given multiple blood transfusions Thursday. He will be under close observation at Culver City Hospital at least until Saturday evening, a spokesman said.

The surgery followed an operation for a slipped spinal disc, suffered while filming "The Raiders" in the Philippine Islands a month ago. The 6-foot-4-inch, 200-pound star was given a series of injections to deaden nerves and lessen pressure while he completed the movie.

He was hospitalized after his return to Hollywood.

"The actor's father, Philip Grosset, and Chandler's former wife Marjorie waited at the hospital. Several surgeons attended him.

Chandler, a native of Brooklyn, N. Y., served in the Army during World War II. He hitchhiked to Hollywood after his discharge.

He got several radio acting jobs and his movie career was launched after a studio executive heard him in a radio thriller.

He achieved movie stardom in 1950 as the Indian chief Cochise in "Broken Arrow." A series of hit films followed.

The handsome actor was divorced a year ago after several separations. He has two daughters, Jamie, 14, and Dana, 11.

Faubus Gang Plan Strategy in Bond Drive

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The director of a campaign for a $60 million construction bond issue said today that county organization is the next step in the drive.

Arnold Sikes, aide to Gov. Orval E. Faubus who took leave to act as executive secretary of the campaign, said the immediate objective of the group is to form community campaign organizations.

Sikes and Harold Ohlendorf of Osceola, chairman of the campaign, met Thursday with representatives of the organizations which would benefit from the bond issue.

Ohlendorf told them the bond issue will pass if the group "gets the correct facts to the people."

Sikes said "I want to have an active organization working in behalf of this proposal in every county."

Ohlendorf is chairman of the Arkansas Building Committee, which is sponsoring the campaign on behalf of the bond issue. He is a president of the Arkansas Farm Bureau Federation. He told newsmen that the Thursday meeting should not be considered a kickoff for the bond drive, but a "get-acquainted meeting."

Other speakers included J. W. Hall, president of Arkansas Tech College and chairman of a College Presidents Association that has been pushing for a state building program since last year. "Every group interested in education should support this proposal," he said. "This is a great opportunity to get in and do something big for Arkansas."

Faubus has not set a date for the special election at which he hopes to get voter approval for the bond issue. But he has indicated the balloting will be in September.

The bond proposal is linked with a $14.5 million omnibus law in Faubus' spending program. The omnibus act is under attack in the Arkansas Supreme Court on grounds of constitutionality.

CIA, Pentagon Blamed for the Cuban Disaster

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, said today the Central Intelligence Agency and the Pentagon must share blame for the Cuban invasion disaster because "both advised the President that the plan was feasible."

Church gave a handwritten statement to reporters as he came out of a closed hearing at which Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, was questioned about the role of the joint chiefs in the incident.

But Church did not join Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., who said "We directly need a new chairman and members" of the joint chiefs.

"Two Republican members of the Senate Latin American Affairs subcommittee disagreed with Gore in talking with reporters outside the hearing room.

Sen. Homer E. Capehart, R-Ind., said "I didn't hear anything in there that suggests we need to replace Gen. Lemnitzer any more than we need to replace the President or anybody else."

"They were all in this together," Capehart added

Mr. Glaze and Miss Harvey Honored at Dinner
Mrs. A. T. Goodloe and Mrs. Phil McCorkle Jr. honored Freddie Max Glaze and his fiancée, Connie Harvey at dinner recently. Arrangements of roses decorated the Goodloe home. Guests were seated at individual tables and places were marked with cards on which wedding bells were tied with gold ribbon. Miss Harvey, whose wedding is planned for June 10, wore a tulle-trimmed model of black and white checked cotton with wide bands of lace on the gathered tiered skirt. She was presented with a bridal corsage by the hostess. "Bride" was enjoyed following the dinner. The honored couple was given a gift of silver. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dick Harvey of Prescott, Mr. and Mrs. Winston Glaze, Caroline Lone, Brown Hordman, Gloria Neece, John Gooins, of Arkadelphia; Betty Ligon of Prescott, Duke Wells Jr., Karean Weatherall, David Langley, Phyllis and Russell Cerato, Jean Allen and Tom Kennedy, Leila Fisher and Charles Montgomery. The hostesses were assisted by Mr. Goodloe, Ted Goodloe and Ed McCorkle.

Mrs. Mattie Ellis has left for an extended visit with her daughters, Mrs. Tom Nelson and Mr. Nelson in Bisbee, Ariz., and Miss Clara Ellis of Los Angeles, Calif.

Nancy Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lewis, has been elected reporter of Delta Alpha Pi at Baylor University. She will serve her social club in that office during the fall semester. Nancy is a sophomore, majoring in education.

Marilyn White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy White, has been chosen drum major of Prescott High School band for the year 1961-62. Alternates are Linda Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Scott and Mary Gail Forrester, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Earl Forrester. Marilyn is a junior and has been a member of the band for the past 5 years, and a majorette for the past 2 years. This year she was selected for the All State Band and was F.F.A. Sweetheart.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Gee Jr. and children, Bill, Gail and Ron of Pine Bluff were weekend guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Gee and her mother, Mrs. Jim Yancy. Sunday guests in the Gee home, also, were Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Gee, Mary Elbel and Bobby of Pine Bluff.

Last War II Dog Veteran Dies at 20

HOLLYWOOD — A battle-scarred dog — once forgotten by the nation he served valiantly in wartime — died Wednesday in the arms of his sorrowing mistress.

Sarge, a purebred 20-year-old German shepherd, feeble and nearly blind, was believed to be the last surviving dog veteran of World War II.

The dog — his formal name was Major von Luckner III but no one called him that — spent 3½ years with the Marines in the South Pacific. He was credited with helping to save nine American lives by delivering a message under enemy fire.

"He just died on his little bed," said his owner, Jeanne Platt, 59, a retired Army nurse and widow, who lost her son in World War II. The dog died of uremic poisoning, from which he had suffered since the war. Sarge bore shrapnel scars of several South Pacific battles and had a steel plate in his head.

In death, Sarge was clothed in his special Marine Corps jacket, complete with sergeant's stripes, hash marks, Purple Heart, Silver Star, good-conduct medal and battle ribbons.

The citations symbolized historic conflicts in which Sarge had splashed ashore on islands such as Tarawa, Saipan and Guadalcanal.

Four years ago he was found sick and forgotten in a tenement, victim of a beating and attempted poisonings.

A month ago, more than 100 friends had gathered at Mrs. Platt's home to celebrate Sarge's 20th birthday anniversary.

Flooding Is Serious on Upper White

WASHINGTON (AP) — Serious flooding in the upper part of the White River basin in Missouri and Arkansas following recent heavy rain, in the area were prevented by three reservoirs functioning properly, the Army Corps of Engineers said Wednesday.

In a letter to Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo., Col. A. M. Jacoby, district Army Engineer at Little Rock, said flood stages downstream from the White River were reduced by the Bull Shoals, Table Rock and Norfork reservoirs storing 1.7 million acre feet of flood waters.

Jacoby said the White overflowed its banks because of the flow from uncontrolled streams.

Jacoby said Table Rock reservoir, although completely filled, controlled the White below the dam. The river would have been 15 feet higher at Branson and Hollisters, Mo., the flow hadn't been controlled, Jacoby said.

He estimated that 75,000 acres of improved land below Bull Shoals were protected resulting in the prevention of $2.2 million in flood losses.

Flood benefits on the upper Black River near Piedmont, Mo., were estimated at $320,000. Jacoby said the Clear Water Reservoir prevented flooding of 10,000 acres of improved land.

Waters from the reservoirs will be released later under controlled conditions, Jacoby said.

This announcement was made by J. D. Passmore, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church. The program will be on KXAR at 4:30 p.m.

Awards Show Proves They Can Be Lively

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The television industry demonstrated Tuesday night that it is possible to turn out a lively and amusing awards program.

A total of 24 "Emmy" statues were handed out. The telecast switched back and forth between Hollywood and New York. There were seven or eight bright sketches—all kidding the medium, commercials, rating systems and surveys. Stars by the score were seen, but none was overdone or overworked.

Concededly, the most recent season has not been the industry's most brilliant and some of the award categories were ridiculously all inclusive. Generally, however, members of the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences used judgement and discretion in casting their votes.

NBC's great two-hour production of "Macbeth" received the largest number of awards, five. It received the top award—program of the year—and also was named as the best dramatic show. Its stars, Maurice Evans and Judith Anderson, won for the outstanding single performances and George Schaefer received the directing award.

Fred Astaire and Leonard Bernstein tied for second place, with two awards each. NBC's team of Huntley and Brinkley ran off with the news award, while CBS' "Twentieth Century" won in the public affairs category.

There was irony in the award for outstanding performance by an actress in a series. It went to Barbara Stanwyck—whose anthology series will not return next season.

Raymond Burr picked up his second Emmy for his acting in "Perry Mason."

NBC has nailed down the elusive and controversial Robert Welch for its May 21 "Meet the Press" program. Welch is founder and president of the John Birch Society.

Recommended tonight: Perry Como Show, NBC, 9-10 (Eastern Daylight Time) — with Frances Langford and Don Ameche; Steel Hour, CBS, 10-11—"The Leonard Code," mystery with Sally Ann Howes.

Thieving Students Are Expelled

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—A disciplinary committee's investigation of a series of thefts from University of Arkansas buildings resulted in the expulsion of three students Wednesday. The committee did not identify the trio. Burglary and grand larceny charges in connection with a theft from a university building have been filed in Washington Circuit Court against Ronnie Spicer of El Dorado, Jerry Don Wood of Claremore, Okla. and Elvis Allen Cupp III of Malvern.

Mrs. Roy Baker Hostess to Baker H.D. Club

"Flower Arrangements" and "Conditioning of Flowers" were the interesting and informative demonstrations presented by Mrs. Paul Holt, at the Baker H.D. Club meeting when it met on Thursday, May 11 at 7:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Roy Baker. The president, Mrs. Merlin Cox, presided. The hostess gave the devotional taken from Proverbs 13:15. Mrs. Dale Tonnemaker led the group in singing "Take Time to be Holy." Mrs. Jess Evans and Mrs. T. B. Fenwick, Sr. gave a report on the Tri-County Tour.

The hostess served refreshments to 10 members and 2 visitors, Miss Judy Evans and Miss Carol Baker. Next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Merlin Cox.

Both advised the President that the plan was feasible. Both must share in the blame, even though the President rightfully assumed full responsibility.

Leaving the closed-door hearing early, Gore told newsmen: "We need a shakeup of the Joint Chiefs of Staff."

Gore said he based his conclusion on Lemnitzer's own testimony, but would not disclose what the nation's top military officer said that caused him to reach it.

"All the members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff should be replaced by new, wiser and able men," Gore said.

Besides Lemnitzer, an Army general, the joint chiefs include: Gen. Thomas D. White, Air Force chief of staff; Adm. Arleigh A. Burke, chief of naval operations; and Gen. George Decker, Army chief of staff.

Gen. David M. Shoup, Marine Corps commandant, sits with the joint chiefs when Marine matters are being discussed.

White has only a little more than a month to run in his current two-year term. Burke is due to end his third two-year naval term in August.

Both are expected to be replaced.

Lemnitzer became chairman of the joint chiefs only last September. At that time, Decker replaced Lemnitzer as Army chief of staff.

Shoup has been Marine commandant since January 1960.

There have been reports that President Kennedy was irked at the chiefs because, it was said, he felt he was given bad military advice in advance of the Cuban invasion by anti-Castro rebels.

These reports pictured Lemnitzer and Burke as the ones chiefly concerned. It was reported they signed a paper expressing the opinion the operation was militarily sound.

The finger also has been pointed at the Central Intelligence Agency, the State Department and members of the White House staff.

Senators Cautious Over Meet

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senators struck a cautionary note today on the kind of personal diplomacy that apparently is leading to a meeting between President Kennedy and Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., calls the proposed meeting "premature and ill-advised" under present world conditions.

Gore, a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said in an interview that he seriously questions whether Kennedy should "resort to personalized diplomacy."

"Coming in the wake of the Cuban and Laotian affairs and before the President has had the necessary time to consolidate his own positive foreign policy program, I think great risks are involved in a meeting of contending heads of states," he said.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana said that while he did not share Gore's fears, he agreed that if a personal meeting with Khrushchev is considered "we ought to go into it with our eyes wide open."

Mansfield emphasized that an informal talk between Kennedy and Khrushchev did not constitute a summit meeting "but an opportunity for the two heads to size up each other and size up world problems."

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said in a statement that Kennedy should approach a meeting with Khrushchev "with the utmost caution."

"There must be every expectation that a summit meeting will produce a desirable result or the decision to hold the meeting cannot be justified," Dirksen said.

Faubus Cuts Sentence

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The three-year prison term of Ormer E. Fears, former Crawford County treasurer convicted last October of embezzling $8,213 in public funds, was reduced to six months Tuesday by Gov. Orval E. Faubus, making Fears eligible for immediate release. Fears was serving his first term as treasurer when the shortage was discovered in a routine audit by the state comptroller's office.

Attorney Is a Klan Member

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — J. B. Stoner of Atlanta, who entered a bomb attempt case here Wednesday as an attorney for the defendant, was identified today as an official of a Ku Klux Klan group.

Atlanta sources said Stoner styles himself imperial wizard of the Christian Knights of the KKK, a group which admits both Protestants and Catholics to membership.

In the past he has headed two anti-Jewish organizations, the Atlanta sources said.

Stoner left Little Rock Wednesday after appearing as one of two new lawyers for Emmett E. Miller, 44, charged with attempting to dynamite a building at Philander Smith College for Negroes last July. The former lawyer withdrew from the case.

Miller's trial was postponed until next Monday.

board under procedures of the National (railway) Labor Act. Such action normally delays a strike by at least 60 days.

Theodore M. Short, chairman of the Western Carriers Conference, said he expected an emergency board to be named by the President would meet in Washington Tuesday. He said he had received unofficial notice to that effect.

Schoch, asked if he thought the President would appoint an emergency board, said: "Oh, yes, I'm not worrying." He did not elaborate.

The rail spokesman said initial negotiations between the railroads and the union broke down last year. Then, as specified by law, negotiations resumed under auspices of the National Mediation Board.

The board proffered arbitration March 16, but the yardmasters, one of 16 nonoperating unions, declined. The brotherhood, in addition to a wage hike, is seeking work rules changes. The carriers also are asking changes in work rules and a decrease in pay.

Short said negotiations in 1959 between the railroads and various union set a wage pattern which the yardmasters declined to accept. Other railroad unions accepted new contracts providing wage increases and separating work rules out as a special issue for study by a federal commission.

The Railway Labor Act provides that the President can appoint a fact-finding board to review the dispute and make recommendations. This board has 30 days to make its report and the law provides another 30-day cooling off period before a strike can be called.

Alarm Out for Missing Scientist

ELMSFORD, N.Y. (AP)—A nationwide alarm is out for a brilliant young electronics engineer, who vanished May 5. For several years he worked on secret government research projects.

The engineer, Stanford J. Solms, 36, went to work for the Sonolone Corp. here three months ago. A Sonolone official said Solms was extremely competent but he began to behave in an erratic fashion a few days before his disappearance.

"Suddenly he began taking off at odd hours, disappearing from his work for an hour or two and then returning without explanation," said Harry Pearson, director of Sonolone's research laboratory.

"There was nothing strange about him, except that he preferred to be by himself a great deal of the time. He could join in a group conversation, but he's the retiring sort."

During the period before his disappearance Solms received three summons for driving through traffic lights.

Pearson said Solms, a bachelor, had sought spiritual guidance. "He seemed to be quite confused about the course of his life—where he was going and what he was going to be," said Pearson.

A brother, Preston Solms of Glen Rock, N.J., said there was no evidence of any disturbance in the engineer's rented apartment. The engineer spent several years working on government projects at New York University.

Negro Child Is Electrocuted

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Carl Edward Donley, 5, Negro, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Donley of nearby McAlmont, accidentally electrocuted Thursday when he touched an exposed electric wire and an iron pipe while playing under his parents' house.

Girl With Courage of Her Convictions

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: You often said you believe unwed mothers should keep their babies for their own peace of mind. I agree 100 per cent.

I moved to another city to have my child. Only my family knows where I am. I have no friends. Society is hard on the unwed mothers. People never stop to think that it takes more courage to keep the child than it does to adopt one.

Maybe there will be times when I may think it would have been better if I had given my baby for adoption, but those times will be very few, and all I will have to do is look at my son and I will know I did the right thing. One thing for sure, I'll have peace of mind—always. —An Unwed Mother

Dear Unwed Mother: You are proving once again the power of love, and the fact that loving is its own reward.

By following your instinct to love your child, even though it meant starting your life anew, you have won the reward of peace of mind. There is another reward: Never in the years ahead will you have to sit and wonder, "What ever became of my son? Is he in a good home? Is he loved?" Those are thoughts that could mean more suffering than the pains and pangs you have so far suffered.

You have also shown that you have courage, and courage can bring you the most satisfying things in life.

Dear Helen: My husband is 24. I am 18. We have been married four months. When around friends, he always tells how he wishes he was single again. At home I hear the same thing. The other night when my girl friend was over, he brought out two pictures of an old girl friend he still carried in his wallet. In one she was wearing a bare, easy dress that looked like an underslip. My girl friend even made this statement. After taking her home that night my husband threw the pictures away. He's a wonderful man and makes me happier than I have every been but what makes him act this way? Can I do anything about it?—J.E.L.

Dear J. E. L.: Laugh off your husband's jibes. The very fact that he threw away the ex-girl friend's pictures shows a sincere effort to slough off the past.

Dear Helen: I've been going with a boy two months. Now he tells me his mother doesn't want him to see my any longer because we are of different religions. My parents approve of him but his parents are putting the pressure on him. I have never met them. My mother feels I can decide this matter for myself since I will soon be 17. The boy will be 19 next December. Up to now there was really nothing serious between us—just bowling or dancing dates. But as a result of his mother's interference we find we really care. TO HAVE AND TO KILL

By Robert Martin

CHAPTER XIX
Griffis sat at the table, picked up some papers and rifled them with a thumb. "The autopsy report is not complete yet but the doctor says she died somewhere between midnight and five o'clock this morning."
I said, "As far as I'm concerned she died around 4:30 this morning. I heard the shot."
"There could have been an earlier shot. One you didn't hear."
"Maybe," I said, "but I don't think so. I'll admit that the time of the shot and the time of death is important as it pertains to the whereabouts of the killer."
"Correct," Griffis said. "For the present I'm assuming that she died when you heard the shot."
He leafed through the papers. "It seems that except for you, Miss Reynolds and Mr. Stockmaster, nobody was on the beach last night or early this morning. Everyone else was inside the house—or so they say. They can't prove it and I can't disprove it." He counted on his fingers. "Mrs. Dancy, Mr. Dancy, Miss Hollis and Miss McQueen, the three servants. The exception is Mr. Maxwell Dancy, who claims that he was just driving around all night."
"So he told me," I said.
"All right," Griffis said, hunching forward. "We forget opportunity—for now. They all had it, or could have had it. So we come to motive."
"Ah," I said.
He looked at me sharply. "You have thoughts on the subject?"
I shrugged. "You have the same thoughts, I'm sure. Mrs. Dancy was fanatically opposed to the marriage. Ditto Julius Stockmaster, for a different reason. He was extremely jealous and drunk enough to do anything. That little Dixie McQueen came here only to find that she was not expected or wanted, and that Max Dancy was marrying another. I don't know how seriously she felt about him. And that winds up the people with surface motives, if you can call them that."
Griffis consulted his papers. "As far as I can learn, this Dancy was the last person to see the Reynolds woman alive—the last person before the actual killing, that is. He stated that she came to his room late last evening to ask if he knew where Stockmaster was. They conversed for a few minutes—by written notes—and seemed upset. She left, and Dancy went to bed. That was after midnight."
"Check," I said, remembering my conversation with William Dancy and my brief encounter with Laura Reynolds on the terrace. "What about the gun?"
"No trace."
"It could be far, far away by now."
Griffis shook his head. "No. I don't buy that stranger angle. I think it was someone here, in this house, and I'm proceeding on that basis."
"Yes, sir," I murmured respectfully.
Griffis gave me a crooked grin.

Lighter Side of the News Over Nation

By DICK WEST
United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI) — It may be that Rep. John J. Rooney, D-N.Y., was just pulling the judge's leg when he suggested holding court in the ballroom of the Shamrock Hotel in Houston, Tex. But I'm inclined to think that Rooney's little jest might be worthy of serious consideration.

If the U.S. government began dispensing justice in the Shamrock's ballroom, then we taxpayers wouldn't have to buy all those $30 wastebaskets for federal courtrooms in Houston.

This would save us $1,300 on courtroom trash containers, and with that amount of money we could have ourselves a ball.

Discuss Expensive Trappings
The subject of the $30 wastebaskets, and other expensive courtroom trappings, came up as Rooney, chairman of a House appropriations subcommittee, was conducting hearings on the federal judiciary budget for fiscal 1962.

Among the first witnesses were Judges Webster J. Oliver and Scofield Richardson of the U.S. Customs Court. Their budget included $11,800 to buy furniture for a courtroom in the new federal building in Houston.

"This seems like a pretty expensive proposition, $11,800 to furnish a room in Houston, Tex.," Rooney commented. "For how long has a judge sat in Houston, Tex., in the past fiscal year?"

It developed that the Customs Court was in session in Houston for four or five days during the year.

"The taxpayers would save money if you rented the ballroom in the Shamrock Hotel to hold court," said Rooney.

Want Own Courtroom
Oliver explained the Customs Court wanted to have its own courtroom because its judges often had difficulty arranging to borrow a courtroom as they traveled about the circuit.

This explanation, however, apparently did not satisfy Rep. Elford A. Cederberg, R-Mich., who said "the strange thing is, a check of the records will indicate there are more courtrooms than there are federal judges."

Later on, Rooney called for a complete listing of all the courtroom furniture planned for new federal buildings not only in Houston but in several other cities. This was where I ran across the $30 wastebaskets.

Present plans call for the installation of 46 of them in the building at Houston. This presumably will keep people from dropping paper on $60,800 worth of new rugs and carpets.

Equipped With TV
However, the judges who occupy chambers in the new federal building in Sacramento, Calif., will have to make do with $10 wastebaskets. Court clerks and jurors will drop their trash in containers costing a mere $2.26 or $3.13.

For the ultimate in courtroom comfort, however, I commend to your attention the new federal office building in Brooklyn, N. Y. Plans there call for the witness and jury rooms to be equipped with two television sets costing a total of $655.

Times obviously have changed a lot since I used to cover the courts. On the list of new furniture I failed to find a single spittoon.

Says Latin Ties Are Strengthened
ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—Arthur M. Schlesinger Jr. says this country's support of the ill-fated Cuban invasion appears to have strengthened our ties with Latin America.
"Losing a battle isn't losing a war," Schlesinger told the Rochester Democrat Chronicle Thursday night.
He cited what he called "a greater disposition among Latin-American countries to reconsider the Cuban question and to isolate the Cuban regime."
Schlesinger, a Pulitzer Prize-winning historian and former Harvard University professor, is a special assistant to President Kennedy. He recently has been dealing with problems of hemisphere solidarity.
Schlesinger was here for a testimonial dinner for Dr. Richard C. Wade, University of Rochester government professor, who is leaving for Washington University of St. Louis in the fall.

This week it seems that every one is thinking of graduation and the excitement of buying gifts which will please. We have checked with some of our local graduates to see what they have received and thought you might like a tip on their favorite gift items.

Violet Tonnemaker tells us that one of her favorites is a fluffy beach towel. Of course she is very pleased with the handsome jewelry box, a desk lamp and a set of dusting powder and cologne in a wonderful fragrance.

Brenda Mitchell who is graduating this month is delighted with her gifts of lingerie. Among Brenda's other favorite gift items are pieces of costume jewelry and Bermuda shorts with matching blouses.

THE FASHION SHOPPE, where any gift you choose will be a favorite, has Teen Girl shortie P.J.'s in both Jamaica and baby doll styles and they come in a rainbow of colors. Also in their new spring and summer stock are the cutest blouses ever in the "New Look" with popular overblouse designs featuring an outside tie at the waist. Here is a good ideal A soft cotton and dacron petticoat with matching camisole. They come in luscious colors... blue, pink, beige and white. This is such a popular gift item that THE FASHION SHOPPE has re-ordered twice already this season.

Ideally, any girl-graduate's wardrobe should contain a sun hat to wear with sports clothes and the ones we saw at LADIES SPECIALTY SHOP would make excellent gifts. The smart black straw with wide brim and white chiffon tie or one of the little white straws with colored trim. Gift selections are unlimited at LADIES SPECIALTY... they have beach towels, lovely blouses by Macchore which are "gift priced," a showcase of costume jewelry we like the bibs of fresh water pearls and their charm bracelets and many, many things which would delight the girl graduates on your list.

Joe Matt Herndon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Herndon, will graduate this month and some of the gifts he has received include sport shirts, socks, pajamas and hunting and camping equipment. Most of Joe Matt's gifts are from local stores and they are well chosen items which he is very pleased with.

Shopping for gifts for the boy-graduate need not be a problem. The many sport shirts at HERBERT BURNS offer the ultimate in style and comfort. They are undoubtedly handsome and allow complete freedom of movement to the boy with the tennis racket, bowling ball or golf club in his hand. There's no doubt the good looks of the knit shirts at HERBERT BURNS will appeal to you as well as the boy you have in mind.

Shopping for "him" means that you must consider socks and HERBERT BURNS line includes socks by Intervenow, the largest manufacturer of socks in the world.

Be sure to see the cologne and after-shave lotion which has the Alfred Dunhill label. It comes in a gift box and is definitely masculine.

HERBERT BURNS selection of Hickok belts make gift shopping for boy-graduates a pleasure. And don't forget, they have Catalina swim wear.

We have so many occasions to remember in the spring months and certainly we do not want to overlook Memorial Day which is May 30. We can thank the Whites, Jean and Russell, at HOPE FLORAL AND NURSERY for reminding us. Honor the memory of someone you love with a beautiful cemetery place... a basket, trellis design, or one of the pieces from HOPE FLORAL's new line (exclusive in Hope) of artificial flowers and greenery created in the U.S. which have just arrived. These cemetery pieces come in all sizes and prices begin at a budget-minded figure.

Mrs. White told us of an interesting service which they offer and we are sure you will want to discuss it with them soon. If you want to remember a loved one on every special occasion throughout the year, HOPE FLORAL remembers the occasion for you with beautiful flowers. This service is especially desirable for out of town people who want to honor the memory of friends and relatives interred in local cemeteries.

HAVE YOU HEARD MY DEAR
The new sun-fashions are arriving and they are stunning! Do plan to be among the first to see them at RALEY STYLE SHOPPE.

Engineers said persons who object to the work should file the protests with the Engineers July 17.

Kennedy Aims at More Than a Red Alert

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
Associated Press News Analyst
OTTAWA, Ont. (AP) — President Kennedy has called on the allies of the West to be alert to the possibility of new Communist aggression and to build up their conventional armed forces accordingly. But he seemed to aim at more than that.

Much of what he said to the Canadian Parliament Wednesday appeared to be directed at Soviet Premier Khrushchev and the Communist world. He seemed to be laying on the line what the U.S. position will be if he meets Khrushchev next month.

The President seems to want to approach Khrushchev from a attitude of strength, fortified by renewed Allied willingness close ranks against further Russian conquests.

This may be the message Kennedy wants to get over to Khrushchev. The United States has been pushed about as far as it can in Asia, in Latin America, in Germany, in Africa.

The United States wants peace and is willing to talk about it, but remains willing to defend the Western world and determined rally it to defend itself.

The United States intends to strengthen its own conventional forces and hopes to strengthen those of the Western Allies. The case the Communists can make for more brush-fire wars, such as the Red push in Laos.

The United States intends to keep what forces it now has in Europe and to increase their conventional capabilities, just in case the Communists could make something like overrunning West Berlin.

Against the possibility of Soviet nuclear threats to back up conventional thrusts, the President poses the prospect that nuclear weapons will be available to defend the entire Atlantic Treaty area. The United States intends to go ahead with plans to commit to the NATO command 100 atomic-missile submarines.

Overvalue Real Danger on Market

NEW YORK (UPI) — B. Thurlow of Winslow, Conn. & Son said today that overvaluation of the blue chips is a real present danger to the whole market.

Thurlow, speaking before the Investment Club of Boston, said that many of these blue chips have risen in price by 400 percent in the past ten years. Their earnings have remained about the same.

He said the blue chip outlook going into the 1960's "can hardly be considered better than a decade ago, while it might be considered a good deal worse."

The security analyst said it is perfectly possible that sales of heavy industrial companies may drop, taxes and employment may continue to rise, and government may exert more control over pricing policies.

"In many instances," he said, "current dividends, even though they already provide a clearly adequate yield on present price, cannot be considered safe and possibility of future increase seems to me highly remote as long as the present economic environment persists."

Thurlow specifically recommends taking a look at the stocks of Alcoa, Bethlehem Steel, General Electric, General Motors, International Paper, Libby's and Sears, Roebuck as a start.

He points out that these big respected issues with excellent market records and institutional popularity have had virtually no growth in earnings power during the whole of the fabulous fifties.

Permission Asked for Water Intake
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arkansas Electric Co. Opera Corp. has asked Army Engineers for permission to build a water intake, a dike and a bridge leading into the Arkansas River at the site of the company's 1 million steam generating plant. Engineers said persons who object to the work should file the protests with the Engineers July 17.

Duren Strikes Out Four in One Inning

Associated Press Sports Writer
Ryne Duren tied a major league record with four strikeouts in one inning, but wound up with his third defeat as the Chicago White Sox beat the Los Angeles Angels 6-4 Thursday night. Detroit suffered its first shutout, on the fourth hit pitching of Gene Conley, in a 1-0 loss at Boston that shaved the Tigers' American League lead to 4½ games.

Kansas City defeated Minnesota 4-3 with Marv Throneberry driving in all the A's runs, three on a homer off loser Jim Kaat.

The only other game scheduled in the AL, Washington-Baltimore, was postponed because of cold. No games were scheduled in the National League.

Duren, the ex-Yankee fireballer, took the loss in the seventh inning at Los Angeles when the Sox broke a 4-4 tie and scored a pair of unearned runs. The big right-hander struck out Minnie Minoso leading off the seventh, then fanned Roy Sievers—who reached first when the third strike got past catcher Del Rice for a passed ball. Jim Landis followed with a triple that broke the tie, and after J. C. Martin struck out, Landis came in on a single by Sherm Lollar before Duren whiffed Sammy Esposito.

Four National League pitchers had struck out four men in one inning previously, but Duren was only the third to do it in the AL. Walter Johnson, the old Washington Senators' immortal, did it in 1911 and Cy Morton of Cleveland did it in 1916.

Frank Baumann (2-2) won for the Sox in relief.

The Tigers, after walloping 42 hits for 29 runs in three games at Baltimore, managed nothing but singles off Gene Conley (2-3), the ex-Philadelphia Phillie Phanatic, who had lost three in a row, walked just two and struck out six in his first complete game in the AL. He retired Rocky Colavito on a pop fly for the final out with the tying run on first.

Boston scored in the fifth off Jim Bunning (2-4) on a single by Pete Runnels and a double by Don Buddin.

Marv Throneberry blasted his fifth home run of the season in the second inning off Kaat (1-3). Then he brought in the clincher in the eighth with an end of right-handed reliever Ed Palmquist, following a walk and single by Andy Carey. Ray Herbert (3-2) won it.

Travs Rally, to Defeat Chattanooga

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Southpaw Johnny Seale of Birmingham whose career pitching record is only 30-32, can't keep up his present pace—the other Southern Association teams hope.

The 22-year-old hurler from Durango, Colo., boosted his record to 5-0 Thursday night with a 9-2 triumph over Atlanta that put the Barons in a tie with Chattanooga for the league lead.

In making his fourth routine performance of the year, Seale walked only two Cracker and struck out six. The 5-foot-11, 135-pound lefty surrendered nine hits, but Atlanta could do no more with them than single runs in the first and fifth innings.

Birmingham's 12-hit attack featured a six-run fourth inning. Baron infielder Francis Jacuk paced the barrage with two homers and a single, and every Birmingham player got at least one hit.

Chattanooga lost its sole claim to first place after a 5-2 defeat by Little Rock, Nashville edged Shreveport 5-4, and Macon stopped Mobile 5-2.

Pitcher Chuck Daniel struck out eight Lookouts and provided the key hit in a four-run rally for Little Rock. Daniel, who won his fourth game, beat out a grounder with the bases loaded and two out.

Wall, Cupit Set Out to Hold Lead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Art Wall and Buster Cupit set out to hold their two-stroke lead in the Hot Springs Open golf tournament's second round today, and 92 other professional golfers scramble to get within the "top 60" cutoff point.

The field will be cut after today's 18 holes. Thursday, 45 golfers shot par 72 or better over the 7,000-yard Hot Springs Country Club course.

Wall and Cupit fired 7-under-par 65s to take the early lead. Right behind them at 67 were Jerry Steelsmith and Mike Souchak. Then, at 68, came Doug Sanders, Julius Boros Al Geiberger Dave Ragan and Mason Rudolph.

Their hot putting and steady fairway games were inspirational to Wall and Cupit yesterday. It marked what Wall hopes is the end of a back ailment that has plagued him through the first 12 tournaments of the season. "The only time my back bothered me was when I made an improper swing," he said.

Wall shot a steady 31-34-65 with seven birdies. He missed by inches a 65-foot chip shot on the 18th hole. If it had gone in, he would have gotten the undisputed lead.

Cupit had a slightly more irregular 31-34-65 with eight birdies. Both had 26 putts.

Cupit, a country club pro at Fort Smith, Ark., took his first round score as a mandate to step up his pro golf activity. "I plan to play in more tournaments this year—10 or 15. This is just the fourth one I've been in," he said.

Wall, of Pocono Manor, Pa., was the PGA's leading money winner in 1959 and has won $8,862 in 12 tournaments this season.

There was no solid favorite after the first round because of the knot of 45 golfers at par or under. However, defending champion Bill Collins (37-35-72) and Doug Sanders (35-33-68) were mentioned as possible titlists. Sanders won the Colonial in Fort Worth last Sunday, then said he would not play in the Hot Springs meet because his wife was ill and he was going to take her to Mexico. He already had entered the tournament here, and changed his mind Tuesday.

The leading amateur in the first round was Miller Barber of El Dorado Ark., who fired a 37-35-72. Bill Henry and Charles Lewis of Little Rock shot a 73.

In the second inning. (More)

Bit of Life Around Areas of Arkansas

By BOB HARING

Associated Press Staff Writer

Dropping a letter in a mail box is a little like jumping out of an airplane. Once you let go, it's tough to reverse your decision.

But postal laws are more flexible than the law of gravity and you can get a letter back if you act quickly enough.

Don't wait a day, though. Twenty-four hours is a little in most cases for the Post Office Department to catch a letter, says Charles W. Abrams, superintendent of mails for the Little Rock Post Office.

And don't wait by the box for the carrier to come by. He won't give up the letter no matter how much you argue.

The proper procedure, Abrams explains, is to hop down to the local post office—or call—and start with the superintendent of mails.

If you call him, he'll have the letter intercepted and held until you can come in.

Eventually you've got to go to the post office and fill out a form identifying the piece of mail, giving the time and place of mailing and reporting the reason for withdrawal.

Only the sender can get it back. The Little Rock office averages half a dozen such cases a week.

Most people, Abrams says, want letters back because they forgot to put in a check or some other enclosure, put the wrong check in, need to add something or have heard from the other party.

Should you not catch the letter before it leaves the local post office, there still is hope, but it'll cost you a telegram toll. The local postmaster can wire the receiving postmaster and have the mail returned.

If you act quickly enough, your chances of stopping delivery are almost perfect, Abrams says.

And what if you deposit your purse or bank statement instead of that letter?

Well, Abrams says, it's a little easier to recover those objects, but you still have to deal with the superintendent of mails and not the carrier who picks up from the mail box.

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP)—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower didn't hesitate when asked what field of medical research he feels is most important today.

"I think cancer, unquestionably," he told a reporter Tuesday on his first visit to Johns Hopkins University since he was elected a trustee Jan. 9.

Eisenhower had several other trustees met with the visiting committee for the school of medicine to review activities of the school.

WORKER JAILED IN ALABAMA CASE

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Police today arrested a Birmingham bakery worker on charges he took part in a white mob's attack on integrationists at a Birmingham bus station Sunday.

Detective Melvin Bailey said Jesse Oliver Faggard, 30, signed a statement admitting he answered a Ku Klux Klan call to appear at a bus station where the integrationists were expected, but denied striking any blows.

He was charged with assault with intent to murder and grand larceny, Bailey said.

Two persons—one white and one Negro—were battered by a crowd of club-swinging white men when they stepped off the bus. Others getting off the bus also were beaten up, along with several bystanders.

Class Leaves School Improved

Howard Hindman, Fulton, is pictured laying a rock wall across the front of Yegger High campus. This wall is a senior class project for this year and is 198 feet long and cost more than $200. The class saw the need for making the campus more attractive and decided to do something about it. They raised the money for the wall and a check for the entire cost will be presented to the principal during commencement.

The seniors expressed appreciation to those who assisted with special thanks to Howard Hindman for laying the stones; Herbert C. Byers and R. E. Garrett for all the rock and Hugh Garrett and the city for excavation.

Class Sponsors: Mrs. N. R. Yegger Miss B. L. Brittain, Mrs. O. C. Lewis and H. M. Smith; Officers: Will V. Rutherford Jr., president; Douglas Williamson vice president; Bessie Faye Milus, secretary and Martha Allen, treasurer.

HUNTING AND FISHING

Insecticides Threaten Wildlife
Grave concern of wildlife officials over the indiscriminate use of insecticides is pointed up by examples cited by Leo Kluesner of the Missouri Commission.

A farmer sprayed a dog with insecticide to kill ticks. The animal jumped into a pond, killing all the fish in it.

In Maine, 302,000 acres of forest were sprayed with DDT to control spruce budworms. The budworms were reduced. So were trout in the streams.

Trout were similarly killed in seven mountain streams in Montana. One stream never did regain trout population and in the others they never again were as plentiful.

"Highly potent insecticides are used as casually as foot powder," says Kluesner. "There is no control of users of these deadly poisons. There are instructions, of course, on the labels, warning of danger to humans and domestic animals. A few warn of danger to wildlife. But instructions are not control."

Elm trees were dusted in the northeast for Dutch elm disease. Months afterward, robins died after eating earthworms poisoned by DDT in the ground beneath the trees. A lake in California was sprayed to kill gnat larvae. About 100 grebes died. Repeated sprayings killed more. In 1960, 30 pairs of breeding grebes on the lake never produced young.

Insecticides run off crop land after a rain and even filter down to contaminate underground water supplies. DDT has been found in the Mississippi River at Quincy, Ill., and the Missouri at Kansas City. Like strontium 90, the insecticides in water can be a danger if they accumulate in large enough quantities.

"There can be immediate danger from insecticides," adds Leo Kluesner. "A pilot who crashed his crop-dusting plane walked away unharmed. He died about five hours later because insecticide carried in his plane had soaked his clothes."

Algerians Expected to Act Up Again

PARIS (AP)—France and Algeria today braced for an upsurge of violence by Algerian nationalists and right-wing activists as peace talks neared between France and the nationalist rebels.

Negotiations which may lead to eventual independence for Algeria began Saturday at Evian-les-Bains with a delegation representing the rebel National Liberation Front (FLN).

At least 10 persons were killed and 10 others wounded in a series of incidents involving Algerians, or the Algerian rebellion, late Monday and early today.

The worst was the apparently accidental explosion of a mortar shell in the midst of FLN commandos in the Algerian village of Saoula, about nine miles south east of Algiers. Police said the rebels were evidently preparing the shell for use as a grenade when it exploded prematurely, killing four outright and seriously wounding a fifth.

In France there were attacks by FLN commandos against Europeans, and attacks carried out by right-wingers.

The heat of a lightning bolt causes nitrogen to combine with oxygen. The nitrogen oxides dissolve in rain, forming dilute nitric acid which reacts with minerals in the earth to form nitrate fertilizer.
